

Mar 21, 2019

Al Ain University spread the love on the Mother's Day

Various activities were organized by the Deanship of Student Affairs at Abu Dhabi and Al Ain campus, on the occasion of the Mother's Day which is celebrated by the 21st of March yearly. The event was organized to express the appreciation for all the mothers, and it was attended by the academic and administrative staffs, in addition to, the people of determination students and their mothers.

At Abu Dhabi campus, a breakfast was organized for the mothers of the AAU family, and Dr. Amer Qasem, AAU Vice President, distributed gifts for them. Whereas, at Al Ain campus, different activities were organized such as; playing violin, withdrawals on valuable gifts, in addition to; giving opportunity for the attendees to express their love to their mothers by writing sentences on the wall.

For her part, Dr. Ibtehal Aburezeq, Dean of Student Affairs, stressed on the University's keenness to celebrate Mother's Day each year and expressed her appreciation for the role of mothers and their efforts between work and with family, wishing them all health and wellness.

Press Release Link