

Sep 17, 2019

"Plan for Your Happiness" makes a positive difference for students

Plan for your happiness, is a program presented by the Family Development Foundation in the event that organized by the Deanship of Student Affairs at Al Ain University, Abu Dhabi campus to enhance community and professional awareness among students and discuss the best ways to plan for their future aspirations.

During the lecture, Mrs. Heba Sharkas, Director of Training and Consulting at the Family Development Foundation, presented the basics of planning professional, social and marital life, and guide the youth in the right way of making decisions, whether in their work or social life as well as in choosing a life partner.

Press Release Link